What does it mean to be a member of the Chattanooga Goodwill organization?

- You'll have the satisfaction of knowing that your work is making a difference in your community. In addition to strengthening our community and families by promoting independence and dignity for the people who need it most, you'll be helping us care for the earth. Last year our Goodwill diverted more than 8 million pounds of material from local landfills through sales and salvage.
- Our vision is a community where every person, regardless of ability, situation, or background, can achieve their greatest potential.
- Revenue from our retail stores help fund our workforce development and community services programs, which means our employees are direct contributors to changing lives!

How do we do this?

- We value and respect the inherent dignity and worth of people.
- We value truth, set high standards, and keep our promises.
- Continuous Improvement.
- Teamwork.
- We respect open and honest communication.

- We value a culture of innovation, learning, and development through social enterprise.
- We honor the resources entrusted to us with responsibility and care.

We invite you to apply to become a part of our friendly, hardworking, and caring group of dedicated employees.
